SUMMARY

As a dedicated assistant in a photo studio, I specialize in supporting various photo skills and needs. My role includes successful contributions to photo editing, video assistance, and cashier duties, showcasing my excellent communication and multitasking abilities.

With four years of experience, I have honed exceptional customer service skills, fostering satisfaction and loyalty. This expertise has not only allowed me to effectively communicate with customers but also to ensure their happiness, potentially leading to repeat business and referrals, thereby enhancing profits.

Currently pursuing IT basics in college, I maintain a stellar record with 95% attendance and punctuality. This academic journey not only expands my knowledge but also complements my practical experience in the business field. Collaborating with faculty and peers, I've further developed strong communication and interpersonal skills, enhancing my overall professional profile.
